

Transcribed on following page

State of South Carolina
Union District

On this twenty second day of October eighteen hundred & forty (1840) personally appeared in open court before John J. Pratt Judge of Ordinary for Union District in the State of South Carolina, Mary Stribling a resident of ~~the~~ Brown's Creek in the District of Union & State of South Carolina aged seventy two years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed July 7th 1838: That she is the widow of Clayton Stribling who served as a private soldier in the war of the revolution, under Captains Palmer, Sloggins & Hughes in Co. Brandon's Regiment, as will more fully appear by the records in the Comptroller General's office in Columbia, a copy of which is hereto annexed; she further declares that she was married to the said Clayton Stribling on the 11th day of November in the year seventeen hundred & eighty seven,
that she was married to the said Clayton Stribling after the last term of his service, but before the year seventeen hundred & ninety four, all of which will more fully appear by a record of said marriage & the ages of the children preserved in a family bible, which is herewith inclosed, she further declares that her husband the aforesaid Clayton Stribling died on the eleventh day of March in the year 1831, & that she has remained his widow ever since that period as will more fully appear by reference to the proof herewith annexed Sworn to & subscribed on the day & year above written before J. J. Pratt Judge of the court of Ordinary

Mary Stribling
mark

Clayton Stribling Widow
Revolutionary War Pension
Application (W6208), NARA

Clayton Stribling was married to Mary on 11 Nov 1787; he died
on 11 Mar 1831

Gen 9 Proofs
Mark Daniel Jennings
Children American Revolution

State of South Carolina
Union District

Transcribed from Widow's
Pension Application

On this twenty second day of October eighteen hundred and forty (1840) personally appeared in open court before John J. Pratt, Judge of Ordinary for Union District in the State of South Carolina, Mary Stribling, a resident of Brown's Creek in the District of Union and State of South Carolina, aged seventy-two years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed July 7, 1838: that she is the widow of Clayton Stribling who served as a private soldier in the War of the Revolution, under Captains Palmer, Jolly, and Hughes in Col. Brandon's Regiment, as will more fully appear by the records in the Comptrollers Generals office in Columbia, a copy of which is hereunto annexed; She further declares that she was married to the said Clayton Stribling on the 11th day of November in the year seventeen hundred & eighty-seven, that she was married to the said Clayton Stribling after the last term of his services, but before the year seventeen hundred & ninety-four, all of which will more fully appear by a record of said marriage & the ages of the children, preserved in a family Bible, which is hereforth inclosed, & she further declares, that her husband, the aforesaid Clayton Stribling, died on the eleventh day of March in the year 1831, and that she has remained his widow ever since that period as will more fully appear by reference to the proof herewith annexed.

Sworn to & Subscribed on the day and year above written before J. J. Pratt, Judge of the Court of Ordinary

her Mary X Stribling

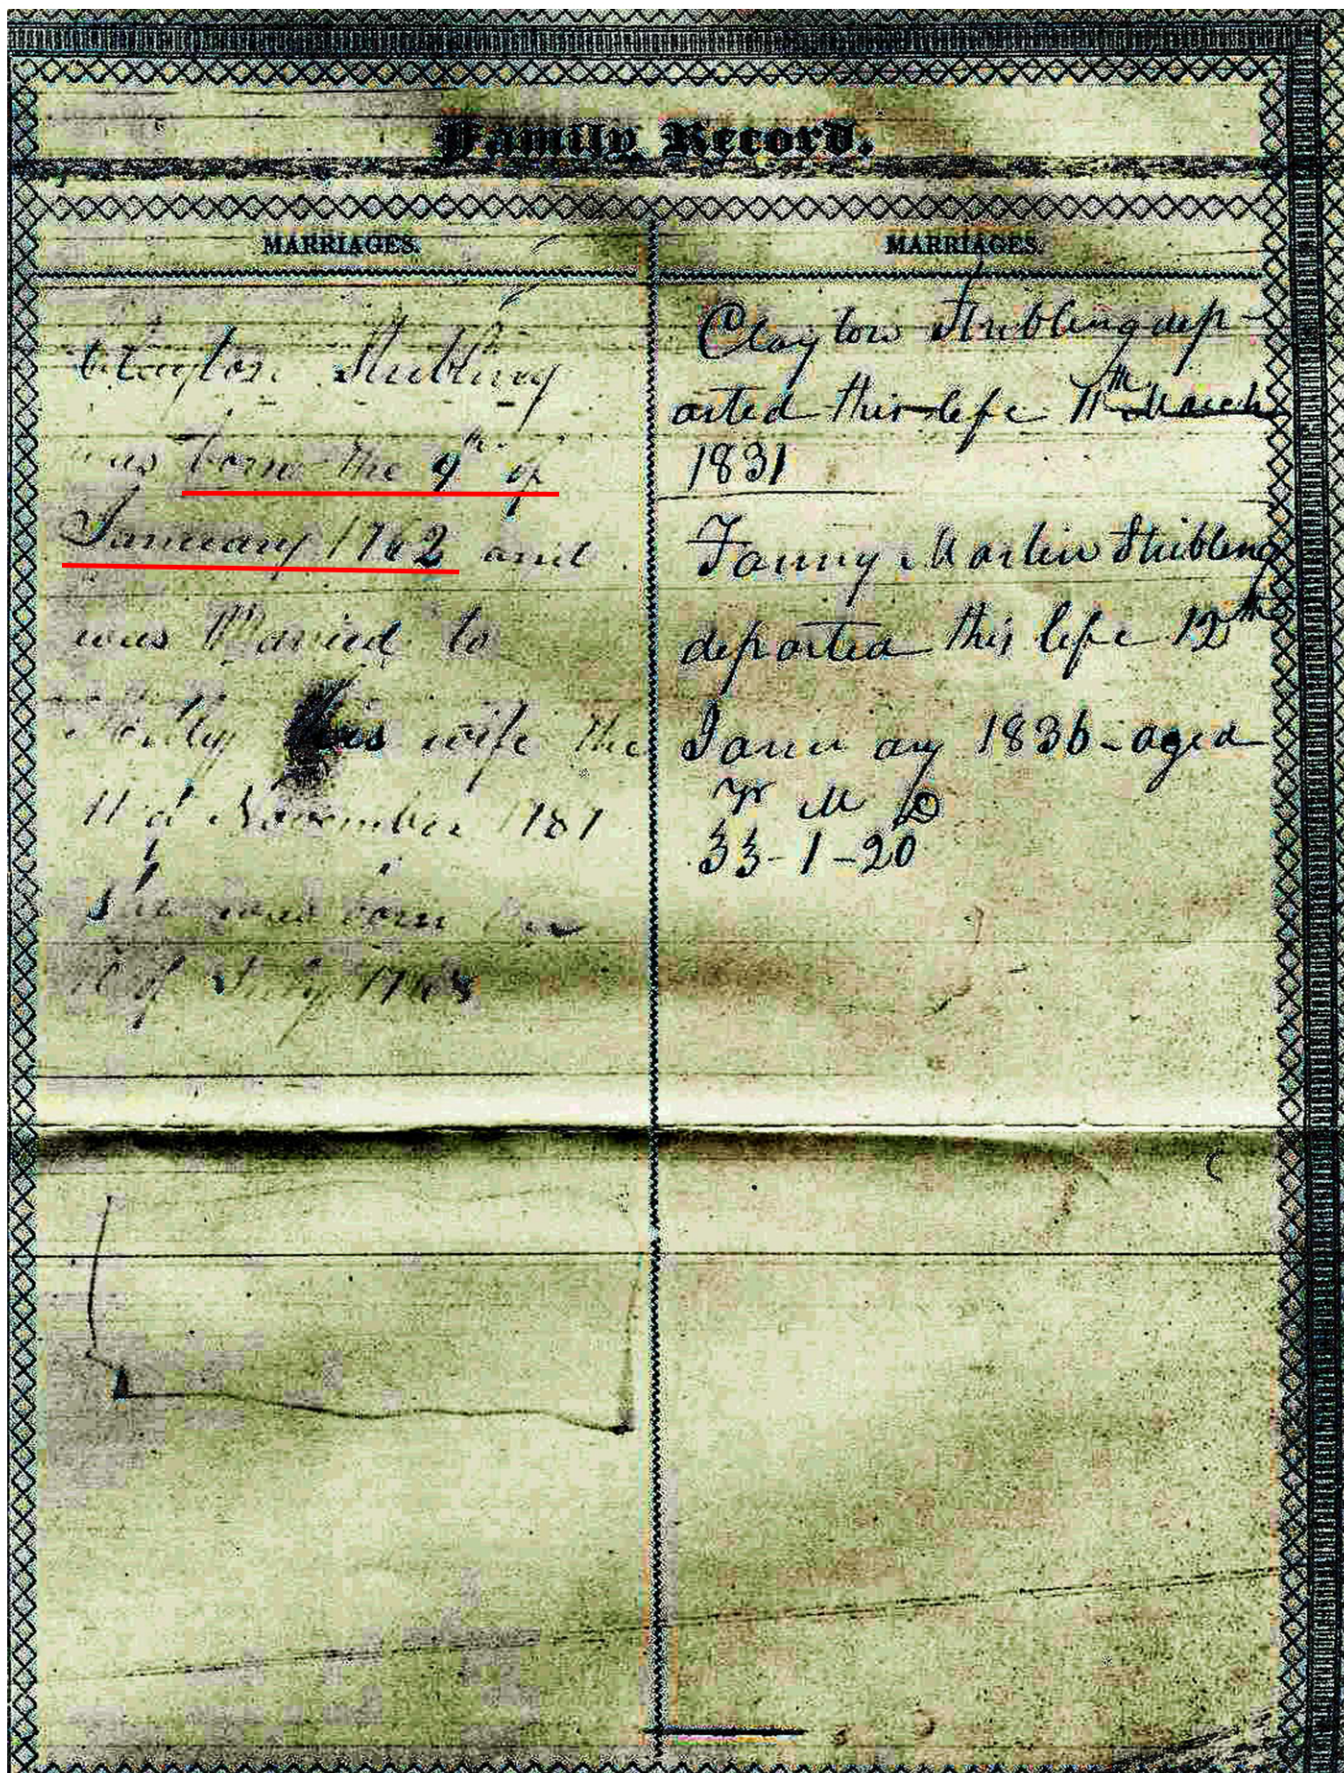

Mark

Clayton Stribling Widow
Revolutionary War Pension
Application (W6208), NARA
included family bible excerpts

Clayton Stribling was born 04 Jan 1762

Gen 9 Proofs
Mark Daniel Jennings
Children American Revolution

Clayton
Stribling
born 4th of January 1762

Headstone Mary Stribling,
Find-a-grave Memorial
#16002494

Mary Beckham died 26 Aug 1859, and born 19 Feb 10 Jul 1768, and was daughter of John and Elizabeth Beckham

Gen 9 Proofs
Mark Daniel Jennings
Children American Revolution

Find-a-Grave Memorial #16002494

MARY
Wife of
CLAYTON STRIBLING
daughter of
JOHN & BETTY BECKHAM
Died August 26, 1859
AGED
91 years, 1 Month & 16 days.

Buried at New Harmony Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Neshoba Co., MS